On the reverse side of this form, explain the circumstances that preclude your studying as a regular student and for which you are petitioning permission to audit the class.

The audit fee (equal to one-half tuition for the course) gives the auditor the right to attend the class and participate, but not take any exams or receive credit. The auditor must also purchase the book for the course at the regular price and pay the shipping and handling fee. He/she must agree in writing to complete all assignments.

The person who wishes to audit will sign and date the following statement:

“I promise to do all the assignments in the marked course below. However, I will not receive credit for the course, nor will I take any of the tests. My name will appear on the record of attendance and exams only as an auditor, although I will be allowed to participate in the group discussions.”
